Protect your travelers in the event of civil disturbances or political unrest, in addition to medical emergencies. MEDEX SECURE pays transportation costs associated with emergency evacuations in these and similar situations, and includes the unique service capabilities of MEDEX Assistance.

A TANGIBLE SECURITY EVACUATION BENEFIT

MEDEX SECURE provides a security evacuation benefit of $100,000 per individual per emergency Security Situation. Whether an individual traveler requires evacuation or a group is evacuated by charter plane, MEDEX SECURE is designed to accommodate a range of emergency needs. With MEDEX SECURE, clients and travelers can rest assured that they have a comprehensive and tangible benefit.

A RELIABLE THIRD-PARTY DECISION FACTOR

To ensure clients and travelers that their safety is secure with MEDEX, the program includes a reliable third-party decision factor. If the U.S. State Department declares that all Americans in Syria should immediately evacuate, or the Democratic People's Republic of Korea declares that all Japanese citizens are to evacuate the country, your MEDEX SECURE benefit will undoubtedly take effect. This is your assurance that MEDEX SECURE will always pay for political and security evacuations which are officially declared by either the recognized government of Your Home or Host Country.
